ISEP Conduct Enforcement Initiative in Conjunction With Indiana State University 2009 Homecoming

Terre Haute, IN – October 25, 2009 - Indiana State Excise Police issued 84 summonses to 82 individuals in conjunction with the 2009 Indiana State University Homecoming. In addition to these criminal arrests 5 area businesses were cited administratively for offenses related to minors.

These arrests and violations were conducted by officers working a special enforcement initiative that was funded in part by the Vigo County Local Coordinating Council in cooperation with the Indiana Criminal Justice agency.

Arrests made included the charges of:

- Possession/Consumption of Alcohol by a Minor
- Minor Entering A Permit Premise
- Possession of False Identification
- Public Intoxication
- Possession of Marijuana
- Adults Furnishing Alcoholic Beverages to a Minor
- Adults Aiding or Inducing Minors to Possess Alcoholic Beverages
- Possession of Tobacco by a Juvenile

Excise police officers spent Thursday, Friday, and Saturday patrolling the Terre Haute area with the goal of trying to promote the legal and responsible use of alcoholic beverages.
